But is has been House Republicans that have led the fight to cut some drug war agencies like NDIC, which has long been championed by Democrats and opposed by Republicans.

By 5 years, more than 90% of those adhering to the GFD will have negative serologies (58).